

Grounds For Sculpture Student Group Visit Reminders

Grounds For Sculpture (GFS) combines art and beckoning spaces to welcome, surprise and engage all visitors in the artist's act of invention. Teachers and chaperones are responsible for student behavior while visiting Grounds For Sculpture.

To help make the most of your experience, please read and review the following points with your students and chaperones before your visit.

Indoor Galleries

- The indoor galleries and sculpture park are shared spaces. Please be mindful of other visitors and talk in a respectful manner and tone.
- Respect the art and help us protect the collections. Artwork in the indoor galleries may not be touched.
- Please keep writing and sketching implements away from the artwork and museum walls.

Sculpture Park

- Students must be accompanied by a teacher or chaperone at all times. Please be mindful of other visitors and move through the grounds with your group in a respectful manner.
- To enhance your experience, you are invited to touch select outdoor sculptures. Sculptures throughout the park have plaques that indicate whether they may be touched. Do not touch sculptures marked with the no-touch symbol.
- Touch select outdoor sculptures gently. Sculptures are available to be touched to gain a greater understanding of their surface and material. Sculptures are not designed to be climbed. For your safety and to protect the artwork, climbing sculptures is never allowed.
- Help us protect our beautiful gardens. Please stay on the pathways or in the open grassy areas to preserve our landscape, gardens, and rare plantings. Please do not pick flowers or disturb plants.
- Please maintain a safe distance from the peacocks and other wildlife. Touching peacocks and wildlife may cause the animal harm or place your personal safety at risk.
- Grounds For Sculpture is mostly outdoors and open year-round in all weather conditions. Please wear appropriate clothing and footwear for the current weather conditions.

Grounds For Sculpture is a magical place with endless opportunities for discovery and exploration. Teachers and chaperones are key for a positive school visit. Please make sure all adults model and maintain these guidelines.

We hope you enjoy your visit!
