

TEAM BUILDING

AT GROUNDS FOR SCULPTURE

Strengthen communication • Develop solution-oriented thinking • Spark creativity

Activities are designed for a fun and relaxing creative experience and can be customized to support your meeting goals and themes. All workshops are 90 minutes in length. The rate is $35 per participant.

When faced with finding tough solutions, we are often told to “think outside the box.” What if all you have to work with is what’s inside the box? Sharp thinking and breakthrough ideas are honed in this studio workshop. Teams collaborate on a themed sculpture using limited time, materials, and resources – with a twist – in a way that empowers innovation.

What moves and motivates your team? Gain insight as we transform everyday objects into dynamic one-of-a-kind team sculptures. Each participant brings one item from work or home that represents something of significance to their life or project viewpoint. The objects are then combined with themes that reflect common threads among the team.

How does one piece of the big picture contribute to the greater whole? In this relaxed group painting workshop, each participant receives one portion of a larger image to paint onto a canvas using their choice of style and color. The finished canvases are then assembled together to reveal the collective artwork made by the group. This activity demonstrates how connections are made and individual perceptions can be seen in new ways.

Perspective is an important part of how we experience the world around us and each other. This team workshop builds skills for observing, analyzing, questioning, and assessing as a group. Teams participate in a creative outdoor challenge that involves swift critical thinking, dialogue, and decision-making.

Clay is one of the oldest known materials for creative expression. As we push and pull the clay into shape, we enter into a dialogue with ourselves and each other and form a visual language of our collective ideas. Focus is on hand-building techniques using air-dry clay. Adaptable to all skill levels – beginner to expert.

In this fast-paced outdoor challenge, teams race against the clock using visual hints to find specific sculptures and earn points. A fun way to relax and see the grounds. Prizes are awarded to the winning team.

GUIDED TOUR & WORKSHOP BUNDLE

With 42 acres and approximately 350 works of art, a guided tour provides a deeper look into the sculptural secrets and rich history of Grounds For Sculpture. Tours are one hour in length and each guide can accommodate about 15 people. Multiple guides can be arranged for larger groups. Fee is $100 per guide and includes admission to GFS.

PRIVATE GENTLE MOVEMENT WORKSHOP

In this workshop, learn to tackle stress in the workplace using wellness techniques, including relaxed breathing exercises, Qigong forms, and Tai Chi. This movement-based program is offered by Dao Concepts, a veteran-owned organization that helps individuals live a life in balance.

Please note that this program is facilitated by a contracted instructor and requires a minimum of six weeks advance notice to book.

STRATEGIC RETREAT PACKAGE

Strategic Retreats encompass one- or two-day experiences on our campus and are designed to foster a more immersive practice of creative brainstorming, constructive communication, and solution-oriented thinking.

GFS offers a selection of well-equipped meeting facilities, including a state-of-the-art board room, indoor galleries, outdoor spaces, and multiple dining and catering options.

Become a Business Member – and receive group discounts and benefits

Grounds For Sculpture's Business Membership program offers opportunities for businesses to engage with all the park has to offer. This 42-acre sculpture park, museum and arboretum located in Hamilton, NJ is an oasis of beauty, where art and imaginatively landscaped gardens awaken the senses, enhance well-being, and stimulate reflection.

GFS is a resource for the business community with meeting and event spaces, the Zagat rated Rat's Restaurant, private Team Building and tour experiences focusing on art and horticulture. The Business Membership Program offers additional access and benefits for your business, staff, and clients. The tiered Membership levels include a variety of special event access opportunities, and a range of discounts and benefits.

We offer five levels of Membership for our partnering organizations, which range from $350 to $10,000.
